I am a nationally-recognized expert and educator-turned-researcher seeking to break down barriers to learning and growth through education, continually inspired by my direct work with students. My research and advocacy have shaped state policy, legislation in Congress, and U.S. Department of Education executive action.

Education

University of Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, PA. Master of Science in Education, awarded May 2017. Program: Higher education policy and administration.

Kenyon College. Gambier, OH. Bachelor of Arts, awarded May 2016. Majors: Mathematics and English. Awarded magna cum laude honors and distinction on Senior Exercise in Mathematics.

Employment

The Century Foundation. Washington, DC. Senior Policy Associate, Jan. 2019–Oct. 2022. Fellow, Oct. 2022–present.

- Conduct research and advocacy to advance policy change that reduces inequality through higher education, with an emphasis on college affordability for low-income families and communities of color.
- Oversee TCF's research into free community college programs, diversity in college admissions, Parent PLUS loans, and the FAFSA, having authored or co-authored 48 publications and having served as the Principal Investigator on four grants exceeding $550,000 in total.
- Present at convenings and on webinars, provide technical assistance to elected officials, and speak to members of the media, having been quoted and cited in The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Wall Street Journal, NPR, TIME, The Associated Press, as well as coalition letters, letters to the White House by members of Congress, and academic research publications.
- Supervise interns (five to date) at the undergraduate, master's, and Ph.D. levels and advise their research.

Haverford College. Haverford, PA. Graduate Assistant for Academic Resources, Aug. 2016 – May 2017. Program Coordinator for Academic Resources, July 2017 – Dec. 2018.

- Directly assisted students with the transition to college through academic coaching and workshops on skills such as time management, exam preparation, learning strategies, self-care, and academic writing.
- Supervised a diverse team of ten student interns with projects aimed at supporting students' academic skill development, such as public speaking and academic reading.
- Led the Office of Academic Resources' outreach to students to promote events and services.
- Coordinated staff response to student crises as a member of the Dean's Office rotating on-call team.

Kenyon College. Gambier, OH. Community Advisor, Aug. 2013 – May 2015. Head Community Advisor, Aug. 2015 – May 2016.

- Served as an on-hall resource for first-year students, fostering social development and enforcing college policy.
- Supervised a team of three community advisors as Head Community Advisor.
